

Solemn Marriage Covenant

I come of my own free will
to give myself to you in marriage.

I promise to honor and love you
as my spouse for the rest of my life.

I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad,
in sickness and in health, for richer, for poorer,
in sickness and in health, until death do us part.

I promise to accept children from God lovingly and bring them up according to the Rule of Christ and his Church.

I give you a ring as a sign of my love and fidelity in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

I ask the Lord in His goodness to strengthen our covenant and fill us both with His blessings.

I promise and agree that this solemn marriage and the promises made herein are to be observed according to the teaching and authority of The Holy Catholic Church.

What are a bride and groom promising when they marry?

Some say husband and wife agree to be married until one wants out for any reason whatsoever; thereafter, property is split 50/50, and a civil judge decides who pays support.

Christian & Catholic Marriage conflicts are managed differently

The state requires a bride and groom to get a state license when contracting marriage, but the state does not require parties to sign the terms of their own marriage agreement.

Those wanting Christian Marriage should sign a True Marriage Proclamation Set
